

A Sonnet to Autumn

by: Jordyn

Fall pushes away the warmth of summer,
Bright green leaves fade into beautiful shades,
Although summer leaving is a bummer,
The comfort fall brings makes me unafraid.
Autumn begins with a change in weather,
The first colorful leaf blows through the air,
My birthday comes and brings us together,
I feel a gust of wind blow through my hair.
The autumn leaves fall from the lovely trees,
I can't control my smile from ear to ear,
As long as fall lasts I'll be filled with glee,
My happiness will stay forever here.
Though the thought of fall leaving makes me sad,
I know it will be back to make me glad.
